

Agenda

City-Labs Talk Series meeting:

“A greener health: how to foster environmental sustainability in health care”

Tuesday, 14th May 2019 from 17.30 to 19.00

Metrolab (Quai du Commerce 48 - 1000 Brussels)

(please note: 7 minutes per speaker to leave room for questions, no PPT needed)

| Agenda and contributions by speakers | |
|--|--|
| 17:30 - 17:35 Bernard Gouget Treasurer, IFCC - The International Federation of Clinical Chemistry and Laboratory Medicine. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introducing the topic and the speakers |
| 17:35 - 17:45 Arianna Gamba Procurement Policy & Projects Officer, Health Care Without Harm | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is the Impact of the health care sector in the environment? To what extent health care systems can reduce their environmental footprint, without affecting delivery and the quality of care? |
| 17:45 - 17:55 Michele Calabrò Policy and Communications Manager, European Health Management Association | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Which kind of incentive should be created for a change? To what extent can health management and workforce can be agent of sustainability? |
| 17:55 - 18:05 Damien Gruson Coordinator, City-labs project | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How can digitalisation improve care pathways and resources as well as POCT to reduce the ecological footprint? |
| 18:05 - 18:15 Maguelone Vignes Postdoctoral researcher (UCL-CriDIS), Metrolab | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What is the added-value of primary care settings and inner-city facilities for a greener health? |
| 18:15 - 18:25 Usman Khan Executive Director, European Patients' forum | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do you envisage patients' role in reducing environmental impact of healthcare? Presentation of the initiative “All Policies for a Healthy Europe”. |
| 18:25 - 19:00 Open debate | |